Mis Queridas

Es un placer para la obra del Señor para escribirles a vosotros.

The Lord's work here is moving along at a terrific rate and I can see that also He is manifesting His work there in College Park also.
I feel the Lord's spirit more and more everyday manifest through my work here in Argentina.

The past week we have worked extra hard in the idea that we are now trying to use our time more effectively; to talk to someone in every house we knock on about the Church and to leave a folleto (pamphlet).
We have had quite a bit of success but we want to progress even more.

The biggest problem I have right now is that I am scared that my mission will be over before I have done what I feel is worth the blessings that I have received since I have been on my mission.

I have never seen time fly by so fast in my life and it doesn't slow down at all, it is just going by faster. I have been here three months and that is half the time that I was in the mission home and now it seems that I am just running all the time. There was with the new waves, will there be. There was meeting now in the chapel? or is Silver Spring meeting some place else now?

with the two words. I feel a little bit different now. Having to represent two words instead of one.

I know the Lord is blessing his people to see the progress in his work in the world.

Say Hello to Father for me and to the two Bishops. If I find their addresses I will try to write them both.

Love Always
Henry
