Dear Dad, Elvira, Ruth, Tom, Lavin, Dennis, Lydia, Ann, Susan.

What a privilege I have of writing so many wonderful people. I finally received all the mail including the last one of Elvira.

Dad, Elvira, and Dennis - You must have had a wonderful time at the reunion. It sounds like I ~~would~~ ^{will} know anybody when I return.

Lydia - I am proud of you for being such a big girl and facing up to taking the bus knowing all along what a big help it will be for you.

Lydia and Ann - I am proud of you for your determination to learn how to play instruments and to learn music.

Tommy - I hope you have a good time at the fair and the Convention.
See everything for me since it will be gone before I get back.

Things here are coming along ~~to~~ fine except they are a lot slower than I want them to. The people are almost as hard-hearted as trees but we are finding some that show interest especially as the chess here is almost finished and things are moving along.

How does Washington look to you I love and I but you are lonesome. - Right.

Well time is short so I will close - Keep the Home lights burning

Love Always
Harry
