Just a reminder: We'll see you in Azul, Monday, 29 November, at 10:30.

You don't know how much I appreciate your dedication. It takes a long time to prove to the Lord that we're sincere in our efforts to glorify His name. You two are certainly doing your share.

I know that to the extent we seek the Spirit of the Lord and communicate it to those we meet, we will have success.

Remember: We are no different than anybody else; we've got to make good.
